FROM ALL AROUND THE CITY.

Current Local Events of the Day Briefly Told.

Bits of Facts and Gossip Gathered on the Streets by Times Reporters—Points Political, Social and General Happening Yesterday.

Will Not Leave the City.

Mrs. James E. Porter will not leave the city soon, as has been reported, but will continue her music classes all the winter.

No Prayer Meeting To-night.

There will be no prayer meeting at Greene Memorial M. E. Church South, this evening, on account of the Epworth League conference at Trinity.

New Night Clerk.

F. W. Cromer has accepted the position of night clerk at Hotel Ponce de Leon and entered upon his duties last night. W. C. Royer, formerly night clerk, will take charge during the day.

Death of Mrs. Ramsey's Sister.

Mrs. Geo. W. Ramsey and daughter, Miss Lillie, of Third street n. e., have gone to Philadelphia to attend the funeral of Mrs. Ramsey's sister, who recently died in that city.

Trolley Party Last Night.

A select trolley party, one of the largest of the season, went to Salem last night. On their return they took in Crystal Springs and Vinton, and stopped at Grigg's mellow patch near Carr's woods. The ride was much enjoyed by those who participated.

Wanted in Lynchburg.

Police Officer Bell, of Lynchburg, came to this city yesterday, and returned on the afternoon train, having in charge Edgar Jones, a colored waiter at St. James Hotel, who is wanted in Lynchburg on the charge of seduction.

"The Two Colonels."

Charles Melville, business manager of "The Two Colonels," paid THE TIMES office a pleasant call last night. "The Two Colonels" will be presented at the Academy of Music on Tuesday, October 1. It was played here last January and made a decided hit, the attendance being very large and enthusiastic.

Marriage in Botetourt.

Mr. Edward Bryant, of Jennings Creek, will be married to-day to Miss Mary Camper, of Waskey's Mills, at the residence of the bride's father, Matthew Camper. The ceremony will be performed by Rev. E. T. Mason, Jr., pastor of the Baptist Church at Buchanan.

Conductor Franklin Hurt.

An electric car was passing down Seventh avenue n. e. last night. Conductor Franklin leaped off from his car to watch the maneuvers of a dog which was running alongside of it, when the guard rail broke, throwing him violently to the ground. He was not seriously hurt further than being bruised about the hands and legs.

Colonel Cabell Here.

Col. George E. Cabell, of Danville, who represented the Fifth Congressional district in Congress for twelve years, is in the city. The Colonel is accompanied by Mrs. Cabell and they spent last evening with friends in Salem. They are registered at the Ponce de Leon.

Cupid Wins Again.

J. E. Bernard and Miss Minnie Profit, both of this city, went to Winston last Saturday, where they were quietly married at the residence of the officiating minister, Rev. H. A. Brown. The happy couple returned to Roanoke Sunday morning to receive the congratulations of their friends.

Virginia Cotton Plant.

H. C. Barnes, the druggist, has in his show window a fine specimen of cotton plant which grew in his yard, corner Wells avenue and Jefferson street. The bolls are just bursting with the snow white cotton and is an interesting sight to those not accustomed to seeing it while growing.

Colonel Penn Dangerously Ill.

The many friends of Col. John E. Penn will regret to learn of his serious illness at his residence, 546 Campbell avenue s. w. He has been ill for several weeks and in the past few days his illness has assumed such a serious nature that but slight hope is entertained of his recovery.

Complete Kitchen Cabinet.

Daniel Ammen, of this city, is exhibiting a newly-patented kitchen cabinet, which is a great improvement on anything we have yet seen. It is complete in every detail, containing all the necessary requirements for the preparation of a meal, with the exception of a stove, and when closed is absolutely dust-proof, bug-proof and rat-proof.

To be Married at Marion.

Julian N. Barksdale, private secretary to Mr. Bullitt, went to Marion yesterday, where he will be married to Miss Mary Miller, at 2:30 p. m. to-day. He was accompanied by Pandion Taliaferro, who will act in the capacity of best man, and Austin R. Neal, attendant. The bridal party will pass through Roanoke this evening on No. 6, en route to Northern cities.

Mass Meeting To-night.

Mayor S. E. Jones has called a mass meeting of the citizens of the city to meet in the circuit court room to-night at 8 o'clock to formulate plans for the reception of the committee having in charge the Liberty Bell, which will arrive in the city on the evening of October 4 and remain over until the next morning. A large attendance of citizens at the meeting to-night is requested.

The Norfolk Excursion.

The excursion party from Bluefield to Norfolk passed through the city yesterday evening about 6 o'clock. A large number of tickets had been sold in this city with the understanding that the train would leave here at 8 p. m. The consequences were that a large number of Roanokers who expected to go were disappointed on account of the train passing earlier than it was expected.

day evening about 6 o'clock. A large number of tickets had been sold in this city with the understanding that the train would leave here at 8 p. m. The consequences were that a large number of Roanokers who expected to go were disappointed on account of the train passing earlier than it was expected.

An Earnest Christian Worker.

W. W. Lyman, a former secretary of the Railroad Y. M. C. A., is doing missionary work among the coal fields. Mr. Lyman is an earnest and energetic Christian worker, and has done a large amount of good in this city and section as secretary of the Railroad Department of the Y. M. C. A. He is a man that will be heard from wherever he goes, and has many friends here who appreciate his services and wish him a full measure of success in his new field of labor.

At the Business College.

A representative of THE TIMES had the pleasure of visiting the National Business College yesterday. He was shown through the institution by Prof. C. E. Eckorle, president of the institution. A large number of students were in their places and were as busy as bees. Forty-one students have already been enrolled for the session and Mr. Toler Thrasher, son of Mr. T. Thrasher, of Springfield, will enter the college the coming week. One is much impressed with the good work being accomplished by a visit to this institution.

Christ Church Concert.

The active workers in Christ Church congregation are arranging to hold a concert next Tuesday night, October 1. It is possible that the affair will come off at the Academy of Music. A fine programme is being prepared, which will be participated in by Leo Wheat, the celebrated pianist; Miss Carrie Cotterel, of Washington, a well-known soprano; Dr. R. O. Owen, of Lynchburg, a baritone of remarkable power, besides other local and foreign talent, to be announced later. The proceeds are for the church debt, and the Academy will no doubt be crowded with the sympathizers of Christ Church, as the admission fee will be a small one.

Alleghany Institute.

The Alleghany Mandolin and Guitar Club was reorganized yesterday, with a largely increased membership, under the efficient management of F. W. Duke, ex-leader of the Richmond Symphony Club. It is expected that the organization will reach a high degree of excellence. The football team has begun work, and games will probably be played with a number of the leading schools throughout the State. Mr. G. A. Wingfield, business manager, has already received a number of challenges. The number of students is increasing daily. Over seventy boys have already been enrolled. Among the number enrolled yesterday was Mr. Gano, of Dallas, Texas.

In the Police Court.

In Police Justice Williams' court yesterday morning about the usual number of offenders were docketed to confront "his honor." The same number of male loungers were also present, but the crowd was conspicuous for the absence of most of the female visitors who constantly crowd the courtroom. Louis Tucker and Ella Edwards, colored, were each fined $10 for engaging in a general fight, in which knives, hatchets and other instruments of warfare played prominent parts. Minnie Garst, white, was dismissed on the charge of sweeping trash into the streets. Sarah Turner, colored, for loitering and being disorderly on the street, was fined $5. Will Fritz, white, drunk and disorderly, was fined $10. "Dook" Mitchell, colored, was fined $3.50 for indulging in a plain drunk. In the case of John and Edward M. Taylor, charged with the larceny of a horse from Ernest Woodson, the old man was dismissed and Edward was sent on to the grand jury. The following cases were continued until this morning: Newton Strain, Mort Brahme, Jake Mays, vagrancy; Robert Jones, disorderly conduct. All the parties are white. The total fines were $37.50, but nothing was paid in.

In the Hustings Court.

In the Hustings Court a special grand jury, composed of S. M. Woodward, Jr., foreman; D. S. Meadows, S. W. Howerton, John M. Tinsley, M. H. Earman, C. E. Rumsisell, Thomas Engleby and Geo. Gravatt, was empaneled. In the case of the commonwealth vs. Ida Crutchfield, charged with keeping a disorderly house, the jury returned a verdict of not guilty. The commonwealth entered a nolle prosequi in the cases of Jessie Ivey, Annie Dent and Mattie Evans, charged with keeping disorderly houses. In the case of Sallie Shelton, charged with the same offense, the jury returned a verdict of guilty and fixed her fine at $10 and twenty-four hours confinement in the city jail. In the case of Ida Carroll, charged with the same offense, the jury returned a verdict of guilty; Annie Bailey was fined $10 and given one hour in jail; C. M. Gallagher, maintaining a nuisance, not guilty; John Davis, colored, charged with same, three cases, case No. 1 tried and found not guilty. A nolle prosequi was entered in the others. The grand jury returned the following indictments: J. T. Mills, felonious assault and carrying concealed weapons, two indictments. His case was postponed until the 11th day of the November term. He gave bail in the sum of $200 with W. G. Kefauver as surety. C. M. Runyon indicted for forgery in two cases.

TWO CHARTERS GRANTED.

Two Real Estate Companies Organized With Principal Offices in Roanoke.

Two charters were granted yesterday by the judge of the Hustings Court, and are as follows:

The North Kenova Company with a capital of not less than $10,000 nor more than $100,000. The principal office of the company is to be in Roanoke, and the following officers were elected for the first year: Jno. H. Dingee, president; John M. Wigram, secretary; William H. Trial, treasurer, who, together with J. Walter White and Robert J. Wingwalt, constitute the board of directors. All the officials are Philadelphians. The charter stipulates that the business of the company will be to purchase or otherwise acquire, own, hold, improve, lease, convey or otherwise dispose of lands in the States of Ohio, Virginia and elsewhere, to subdivide land into streets, alleys and lots for town sites; to open and grade such streets and alleys; to dispose by sale or otherwise of land so sub-divided; to drain land and build dams and dikes; to dredge water courses; to furnish water, electricity, gas and steam to individuals and corporations; to lend money on land mortgages and to buy and sell such mortgages.

The second charter was granted to the Roanoke Land and Manganes Company, the object of which shall be to buy, sell and work mineral lands, or to lease and work the same or otherwise dispose of them. The capital stock shall be not less than $10,000 nor more than $50,000, divided into shares of the par value of $50. The main office of the company shall be in Roanoke. The officers for the first year are John H. Wright, president; J. Shirley Smith, secretary; E. B. Crabbill, treasurer, who, together with O. E. Whitehurst and W. J. Wright, constitute the board of directors.

THE EPWORTH LEAGUE.

Opening of the District Conference at Trinity Church Last Night.

The district conference of the Epworth League convened last night at Trinity M. E. Church, a large and enthusiastic audience being present.

Rev. G. T. D. Collins had with him a choir from Vinton, which led the singing and rendered several selections in a very pleasant manner. Miss Patterson presiding at the organ.

There were found to be present some thirty or forty delegates from various churches in the district, though a much larger number is expected in on to-morrow's trains.

Owing to unavoidable absence from the city of Mayor Jones, the pastor of Trinity, Rev. J. C. Jones, made the address of welcome. The address was brief, but appropriate, and was responded to on behalf of the league by A. B. Pugh, of Salem, who gave a pointed and interesting talk on the object and scope of the work.

He was followed by Rev. B. F. Ball, presiding elder of the district, in a very happy and spirited speech on "League Workers." After distributing the badges, old gold and white, to the delegates, and the singing of the Doxology, the conference adjourned to meet this morning at 9 a. m.

The session of this conference, which is the first attempt in this district towards a united organization, promises to be an interesting one, and conducive of much good to the league in general.

To the Public.

We lead, but never follow. Everybody knows that Catagni's restaurant is the only first class ladies' dining room in the city. Two separate dining rooms. Police attention. We cater to the ladies' trade. Hot and cold water baths at Catagni's.

Mrs. S. A. KELL, of Pomona, Cal., had the bad luck to sprain her ankle. "I tried several liniments," she says, "but was not cured until I used Chamberlain's Pain Balm. That remedy cured me and I take pleasure in recommending it and testifying to its efficacy." This medicine is also of great value for rheumatism, lame back, pains in the chest, pleurisy and all deep-seated and muscular pains. For sale by the Chas. Lyle Drug Co.

Go to Donaldson's for oak suits, very cheap.

CANCER CURED

—AND A—
LIFE SAVED

By the Persistent Use of

Ayer's Sarsaparilla

"I was troubled for years with a sore on my knee, which several physicians, who treated me, called a cancer, assuring me that nothing could be done to save my life. As a last resort, I was induced to try Ayer's Sarsaparilla, and, after taking a number of bottles, the sore began to disappear and my general health improve. I persisted in this treatment, until the sore was entirely healed. Since then, I use Ayer's Sarsaparilla occasionally as a tonic and blood-purifier, and, indeed, it seems as though I could not keep house without it."—Mrs. S. A. FIELDS, Bloomfield, Ia.
